

Poppelvägen 9,
Äppelviken,
Sweden.

August 15th 1945.

Receipt.

Dear Mr Churchill,
London.

Belonging to an old family from Leicester, who emigrated to Sweden for more than two centuries ago, I have both with anxiety and hope followed your and your countrymen's all difficulties for winning the victory. And when it now is fulfilled I wish to give an utterance to my sympathy and participate in your joy.

Yours Faithfully
Thomas Bennet.

Excuse my bad english but you see during two hundred years it is not so easy to remember the language then spoken.
